

From short to long

Start with one word sentence, and put another word to it. Learn step by step longer sentences.

For example

Wonderful.
Wonderful world.
My wonderful world.
This is my wonderful world.

You.
You are.
You are late.
You are always late.

Sleep.
Sleep well.
Sleep well tonight.

Help.
Help me.
Help me, please.
Help me in the office, please.
Help me in the office tomorrow, please.

Word order with colours

If you have problem with the word order, you can learn it using colour coding. Thanks to the colours, word order will soon be imprinted in your head and you will no longer need to use colour codes.

subject, verb, object, adverbs of place, adverbs of time

Create a collection of different sentence components and assemble them. Sometimes, the result can be quite interesting. For example:

My mom saw a crocodile in the kitchen yesterday evening.